

Step 9: Project Details for Education, Training, Assessment, and Planning (AHED-PR-B)

1. This project supports the following species (check all that apply):

Bees

Bovine, specify: _____

Equine

Farmed cervid

Goats

Poultry

Sheep

Swine

Alternative livestock (including fox, rabbit, mink), specify: _____

Other, specify: _____

2. Select the activity/activities you will complete as part of the project (check all that apply):

Education and training from a third-party institution or consultant on topics related to the adoption of the national biosecurity standards, a commodity-specific risk management program, or animal welfare practices and procedures related to national Codes of Practice for the care and handling of farm animals

Operational assessments, conducted by a qualified third-party, against national biosecurity standards, or practices and procedures

Operational or farm-wide assessments, conducted by a qualified third-party, against commodity-specific risk management program

Operational or farm-wide assessments, conducted by a qualified third-party, against national Codes of Practice for the care and handling of farm animals

Operational or farm-wide assessments, conducted by a qualified third-party, against national commodity-specific farm animal care program

Operational or farm-wide assessments, conducted by a qualified third-party, against market-driven animal welfare program (e.g., North American Meat Institute Audit)

Qualified third-party services to provide an initial operational plan (e.g., disease response plan, operation specific procedures, nutrient management plan or strategy)

Full Name: _____

3. Which animal health risk(s) or animal welfare concern(s) does this project address?

4. Explain how the project will address these risks or concerns:

5. Is your business an abattoir? (Select one):

Yes - a provincially licensed facility

Yes – a federally licensed facility

No

Full Name: _____